

David Mulvey

David Mulvey incorporates more than 25 years of training and professional development experience into helping organizations enhance the way they do business.

David began his Disney career in 1997 at the Walt Disney World Resort in Lake Buena Vista, Fla. He served in many operational roles across Walt Disney World parks and resorts, including attractions, food and beverage, transportation and character entertainment. Working in those environments created a living laboratory for David as he studied how Disney delivers legendary guest service.

David joined Disney Institute in the late 1990s where he has served in a variety of roles. David works diligently to ensure that Disney best practices are represented from all branches of The Walt Disney Company.

Prior to working at the Walt Disney World Resort, David spent 14 years facilitating programs in personal and professional development, including courses such as developing business plans, team building and creative problem solving. David also was a television reporter in Tennessee and Virginia.

David was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications with honors from the University of Tennessee.
